

Guido Ciprandi, MD

Guido Ciprandi graduated from University of Rome La Sapienza (UR1) in 1982, 1987 and University of Rome Tor Vergata (UR2) in 1992. His training in general and thoracic surgery was done at the Clinics for General Surgery and Thoracic Surgery of UR1 and UR2, and in Pediatric Surgery at the Bambino Gesù' Children's Hospital, in Rome. He spent the next years between the Microvascular Clinics of Saint Joseph Hospital in Paris, Children's Hospital in Boston and La Timone Hospital "des Enfants Malades" in Marseille.

In 2001, he became responsible for the Experimental Laboratory Research Center in Palidoro, at Bambino Gesù' Children's Hospital. In 2012 he was appointed Managing Director for Pressure Ulcer and Complex Lesions Project in the Unit of Plastic and Maxillofacial Surgery, Department of Surgery, Bambino Gesù' Children's Hospital, IRCCS, Rome, Italy.

Dr. Ciprandi is a member of numerous national and international organizations, including the European Pediatric Surgical Association, Italian Association for Pediatric Surgery, European Wound Management Association. He is also Trustee in European Pressure Ulcer Advisory Panel and President of the International Society of Pediatric Wound Care.

Dr. Ciprandi has contributed extensively in the various fields of Pediatric Surgery, including Parenteral and Enteral Nutrition, Thoracic and Tracheal Surgery, Oncological Surgery, Microvascular surgery, Fetal Surgery, Wound Care, Complex Wounds and Noma, NPWT, Skin Bioengineering. Among his clinical research efforts are studies concerning Hirschsprung Disease and Inflammatory Bowel Disease, Wilms' Tumor, Neuroblastoma, Pressure Ulcers, Neonatal Ulcers, Propeller flaps. Additionally, Dr. Ciprandi has influenced his field through educational activities. He is Professor of Wound Care at the Universities of Rome, Florence and Trieste. He is also a frequent Invited Lecturer and Visiting Professor throughout the world and Author of more than 200 scientific publications.